- 1. A KOA group of five persons, primarily responsible for making "triks" and propaganda leaflets, reportedly plans to burn a KKE sign of six-foot letters in celebration of the thirty-third anniversary of the founding of the KKE*. Rags soaked in kerosene will be ignited by a slow-burning fuse.

* [redacted] Comment: Although this event was apparently scheduled to take place following 16 November, the date of the founding of the KKE is generally considered to be between 4 and 10 November 1918, when a congress was held in Piraeus which established the Social-Labor Party of Greece (SEKE). The SEKE was the forerunner of the KKE. The Greek method of calculating anniversaries differs from ours; hence it is the thirty-third rather than the thirty-second anniversary being celebrated.
